The Pleasure Path to Wealth - How to Get Everything You Want Using the Power of Your Female Orgasm

Why I wrote this book:

Once upon a time there was a woman who wanted an easier way to create money and success in her life than then way she was doing things.

Every day she went to a job that she disliked, where she worked long hours to make money. At the end of the day she felt totally drained, with no energy for anything else in her life, least of all herself.

One day she was introduced to the gift of receiving immense pleasure in her physical body from her own female orgasm.

Because of that she glowed with radiant, sensual, female energy and became almost magnetic to people, opportunities and success.

Because of that her income increased so she worked less hours, which meant she had less stress and more time for herself and her family.

Until finally she put herself and her pleasure as her number one priority, which meant she made different choices. This enabled her to have the courage and confidence to create a new career for herself doing exactly what she loved - teaching other women about the power of their pleasure and their orgasmic energies for increased wealth, health and happiness.

My Inspiration

I have been inspired by Napoleon Hill and his book, Think and Grow Rich, which was first published in 1937. In it, he talked about the 10th Principle of Success as The Energy of Sex: Transmutation. It links love, sex and romance with money and business success, although the actual steps to do this are very unclear.

Over the course of 2014 I came to understand this principle as I saw it unfold in my own life. I have now updated that principle to make it workable for the 21st century woman. It has become my passion to help women to tap into the pleasure and power of your female orgasm to bring increased prosperity and success in your life.

Sex Education 101!

I attended an all girls' convent school in the late 1970s/early 1980s.

I remember one day, when I was around 15 and it was a Biology lesson. I walked into the classroom and the old nun, who was the Biology Teacher, was standing at the front of the blank blackboard, with her arms folded.

She informed us that today's lesson was on human reproduction. She went on to tell us that there was a lot of smut around that subject.

She then pulled down the rolling board, which had pictures of the female reproduction system and the male reproductive system.

We were instructed to copy them down as fast as possible, as they would not be staying on the board after the lesson.

That was it! Sex Education 101! The subject was not mentioned again in any other lesson!

I have come a long way from there!

Orgasm and Pleasure Leads to Prosperity Beyond Measure!

When you make YOU and YOUR PLEASURE as your NUMBER ONE PRIORITY, then everything flows.

Treat Yourself Like a Queen and Expect to Receive Pleasure

When you feel good about yourself, it becomes a self-perpetuating cycle. Treat yourself like the Queen that you are, use words like 1st class, opulent and luxurious when you talk about yourself and your life.

Ask for what you truly want and expect to receive it in ways that is most pleasurable to you.
